Lia Calhoun brings more than 30 years of experience in design, marketing and communications to her role as Administrative Assistant and Office Coordinator at HomansPeck. Before entering the legal field, Lia built a successful career in graphic design, developing strategic communications for local and national nonprofit and educational institutions, leading projects ranging from branding and annual reports to book design to capital campaign materials and digital marketing. She demonstrates exemplary attention to detail and is highly sensitive to client needs and concerns, both of which are essential in legal work.

Lia earned her BFA in Graphic Design from Carnegie Mellon University.
